

Comtech AeroAstro, Inc. since 1998 has introduced rapid, affordable, reliable, and innovative space-based solutions to existing space users and new users around the world who are just discovering the potential of space. Our products might be micro/nano but our career opportunities are MEGA!

We are currently seeking an experienced Program Controller in our Ashburn VA Office to support program planning, budgeting, scheduling, and reporting functions for a variety of DoD and civil space programs.

Program Controller/Scheduler

Requirements:

- US Citizenship and eligible to obtain a Government Security Clearance is a must.
- BS or advanced degree in Finance or Accounting preferred with 5+ years experience in program planning and budget control of DoD programs.
- Strong working knowledge of Microsoft Project and their application to complex systems is required.
- Ability to develop and maintain an Integrated Master Schedule (IMS) in accordance with DCMA regulations.
- Knowledge and experience with Government Accounting rules.
- Experience in establishing cost/schedule baselines and reporting earned value, generating EACs/ETCs, maintaining program schedules, and supporting Integrated Baseline Reviews (IBRs).
- Familiarity and experience with DoD and NASA cost reporting requirements, including generating CPR and CFSR formats.
- Knowledge/experience with EVM/MPM a plus.
- Strong background and experience MS Office applications.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills required

Comtech AeroAstro, Inc. offers a competitive salary and benefits structure.

Send resume and salary requirements to: www.jobs@aeroastro.com

EOE